MAN AND WOMAN KILLED.

Struck by Train in East Fairfield—Bodies Terribly Mangled.

East Fairfield, Jan. 2.—The country for miles around here was shocked and saddened by the frightful accident yesterday morning, when Mrs. E. B. Dickinson of Herrick and Charles Hammond of St. Albans were struck by the west-bound Boston & Maine mail train, while driving across the tracks at the crossing near the Burleson farm, both being instantly killed and the bodies horribly mangled. The horse driven by Mr. Hammond was also crushed to death and the sleigh smashed to splinters.

The remains of the unfortunate couple were gathered together and taken to their respective homes.

Mr. Hammond and Mrs. Dickinson were driving along at a lively clip and just as they swung around the bend at the foot of the hill and on the railroad crossing, the mail train, reported half an hour late and running very fast, reached the crossing at just the same time and struck the sleigh and horse, throwing the occupants out ahead and they were then ground beneath the wheels. Hammond's head was cut off as were his legs, and he was badly crushed, while Mrs. Dickinson was crushed and mangled almost beyond recognition.

The crossing is at a dangerous spot and it is practically impossible to see trains until one gets in the crossing.

Mrs. Dickinson was 23 years old and survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colburn, of East Fairfield, her husband, E. B. Dickinson, who keeps a general store at Herrick, and a sister.

Thought That Pupils Set Fire.

Bakersfield, Jan. 2.—It is not definitely known, but it is thought that the Bakersfield hill school house which was burned Thursday night was set by two of the pupils.

Future Magnates.

Patrick and Timothy were both employed by the city, and had the abundant leisure for conversation which comes to those engaged in such municipal affairs.

"Well, now, if I had a million come to me I know well how I'd be spending it," said Patrick one day, resting his pick against a convenient wall and looking at B with great distaste.

"How would you be doing it?" inquired Timothy.

"I'd go to the Waldoffed Restoria, or some of them high-toned hotels," said Patrick, "and I'd tell the b'y at the desk, 'Have me called at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning!' Then I'd go to me room and about the blinds, and when first they called me I'd not answer, and when they called me louder I'd give a great sounding yawn, and I'd say between me yawns, 'Go away wid yez! I'm not obliged to be working! I've got money.'"

"Aw!" remarked Timothy as he once more began work.

"Well, what would you do if you had the million?" demanded Patrick.

"Me?" said Timothy, looking back over his shoulder. "I'd have a half-fut more len'th to this pick handle, and save me poor back."—Youth's Companion.

Every Day Sees New Values

In our Clearance Sale. Remnants and small pieces are going on to our tables as they appear at prices made only at this time of the year. Our Clearance Sale makes it hard for us to wait on all as they should be. We are doing the best that we can. With extra help we expect to do better service today.

CLEARANCE SALE.

Here are goods that you should, in justice to your economical buying, select now, as later we will have to sell the same grade of goods at what they are worth. Cotton Goods as follows:

36-inch Bleached Cotton for 7½c per yard.

42-inch Bleached Cotton for 10c per yard.

One lot of Fleece Goods that were 10c, now 7½c per yard.

One lot of Fleece Goods that were 15c, now 10c per yard.

One lot of best 12½c Gingham, now at 8c per yard.

One lot of Dark Prints, the 6c kind, good for comforter linings, now 4c per yard.

One lot of nice, clean Batting (small rolls) for 7c per roll.

One lot of White Donet Flannel, worth 7c, now 5c per yard.

One lot of medium Colored Outings, the 10c grade, now 7½c per yard.

Several pieces of best-styled Silklines for pupis now 8c per yard.

CLEARANCE SALE.

It's at these sales that many of our best customers select their year's supply of Table Linen. They would not do this year after year if it did not save them quite a bit.

Our Cream Damask at 25c per yard is less than it can be made for.

58-inch All Pure Linen Cream Damask at 42c per yard.

64-inch All Pure Linen Bleached Damask at 38c is as good as any 75c goods.

72-inch Bleached Linen Damask. Was our best seller at Christmas time for $1.00. It ought to be cheap now at 79c per yard.

72-inch Bleached Damask that we sell for 88c will be hard to match, even at $1.25.

72-inch Bleached Damask. If we could match Napkins to this Damask it would be $2.00. Now at $1.39 per yard.

CLEARANCE SALE

Of Furs and Garments in both Children's and Ladies'. The best proof we have that these Garments and Furs are cheaper than usual is this: Our sales, since this sale commenced, have been double those of previous clearance sales.

See this paper of Tuesday or Wednesday for prices on Furs and Garments.

Ladies' Coats in medium length that were $8.75 and $10.00, now $3.98. For real value they are far ahead of anything in the Coat line in this city. Furs are selling not at their cost, but at prices that will close pretty nearly the whole bunch before stock day.

Ladies' Separate Skirts are in this sale. Also Silk Waists. It will cost but a trifle to get a full garment rig at this Clearance Sale.

Our Towels, Crashes and Napkins in this sale should be looked up at once if you have not already got your share. Like Christmas, this sale comes but once each year.

ONLY ELEVEN CANDIDATES.

Small Class Up for Registration as Pharmacists—Election of Officers.

Montpelier, Jan. 2.—The regular January meeting and examination of the State Board of Pharmacy is being held in the supreme court room. Only eleven candidates for registration are taking the examinations. In speaking of the small class one of the board said there ought to be twice as many, for there is a great shortage of registered druggists in Vermont. The board held its annual election of officers and elected the same board. They are as follows: President, C. C. Bingham of St. Johnsbury; secretary, J. G. Bellrose of Burlington; treasurer, W. F. Root of Brattleboro; executive committee, W. R. Warner of Vergennes and C. B. Hopkins of Brandon.

NOTICE.

Having sold our stock of Ruber roofing to C. W. Averill & Co., we wish to announce to the public that hereafter they will act as agents for Ruber old roofing in this vicinity. Anyone wiring Ruberoid roofing may obtain same from them and only from them, as they are the sole selling agents for this vicinity. W. H. Pitkin & Co.

PURE LARD

Lard that is pure is the case with the kind that we sell, the Green Mountain Brand. It is taken from the cleanest of Vermont corn-fed pigs. We try it out ourselves and keep everything about the works as clean as possible. Everyone who has ever used our Lard will use no other. Let us show you the reason.
